An Education Above

SUMMER 2016

Some of the best minds in Baltimore are teaching at Roland Park Country School.

More than forty years ago, Alumnae Secretary Peggy Webb Patterson, 1947, was charged by Headmistress Anne Healy to create outreach programs for alumnae, their friends and the Baltimore community. The RPCS Evening School was established during the 1972 – 1973 academic year and with Peggy's guidance, RPCS began to develop and offer courses. One of the goals was to support the School's mission to foster a lifelong love of learning in alumnae and sustain their connection to RPCS. A few classes per year were offered originally and Kay Cavanaugh's popular course in modern art paved the way for success.

Today, Kaleidoscope at RPCS has grown considerably. Courses, book talks, trips, and summer camps are offered in the fall, spring and summer semesters. Over 100 Kaleidoscope educational programs and entertainment options with 1000 participants are hosted each semester. Topics include Cultural Arts, Book Talks, Creative Pursuits, Film, Personal Development, Culinary Arts, Body, Mind and Soul, Children/Family Programs and Travel. A partnership with Diversions affords Kaleidoscope patrons outstanding seating at major Broadway theater events. Judy Pittenger's Great Books courses are now offered in the afternoon and the evening.

Kaleidoscope's reach has expanded exponentially throughout the greater Baltimore community. Catalogs are mailed to a database of 13,000, many of whom do not have any other relationship to RPCS.

Kaleidoscope is led by the External Programs Advisory Board who serve as ambassadors to develop and support Kaleidoscope programs and promote the School's mission of lifelong learning. RPCS is deeply grateful to these dedicated volunteers who help identify opportunities, design programs, provide contacts, host trips and distribute catalogs wherever they can!

Kaleidoscope Lifelong Learning at Roland Park Country School is dedicated to providing opportunities to learn, discover and explore.

Roland Park Country School's commitment to An Education Above through lifelong learning is reflected in Kaleidoscope. This summer, Kaleidoscope is excited to offer a wide variety of both traditional and specialty summer camps for children of all ages, as well as day trips and international travel opportunities for adults. I hope you enjoy our summer catalog and that you will plan to make this season a memorable one with Kaleidoscope!

LUNCH LINK

AGE 6 - 15

Lunch Link provides children an opportunity for a lunch hour, allowing families to create a full-day experience with both a morning and afternoon Summer Kaleidoscope Camp. Lunch will be provided based on the weekly menu posted online. Campers are free to bring their own lunch if they prefer.

At the conclusion of a morning Camp, campers will be cared for in a designated location to eat lunch before their afternoon program begins. This is also a fun opportunity to meet other kids attending a variety of Kaleidoscope Camps that week.

Lunch Link is available between Kaleidoscope morning camps that end at 12:00 pm and afternoon camps that begin at 1:00 pm. We will ensure that your child gets to their afternoon camp on time. Campers must be pre-registered for Lunch Link by Friday of the week before camp. Parents must sign up for an entire week of Lunch Link; there is no daily drop in available.

Please note the week(s) for which you are registering your child(ren) for Lunch Link on the registration form.

FANTASTIC PHOTOGRAPHY CAMP

AGE 10 – 15

Monday through Friday, June 20 – 24

9:00 am – 12:00 pm*

*Camp concludes at 2:00 pm on Thursday due to field trip.

Rosey Puskas-Ragontse

Click, Snap, Pose! That's the sound of your shutter as we take amazing images influenced by some inspirational photographers both past and present! Learn how to see the world in black and white as well as color. We will photograph words using found objects and take fun portraits including selfies. You will be introduced to landscape, portraiture, abstract and conceptual photography. This will be a fun, hands-on approach to learning the process in which a photo is created, and how Photoshop, like magic, can transform an image!

$215

Materials fee: $25

NOTE: Please bring your own camera with memory cards (this class is more artistic than technical so the student should have an idea of how to use his/her camera whether it's a point-and-shoot or DSLR.) Materials fee is payable to Instructor on the first day of camp. Please bring a bottle of water each day and a lunch on Thursday.

Rosey Puskas-Ragontse is an award winning wedding, fashion, portrait and ecommerce photographer in Baltimore. She earned her BFA at the University of Hartford Art School, and was inspired to start Red Rose Photography after working for the Arthur Remanjon Photography studio for three years. Her work has been published in Zink magazine, The Washington Post, Vogue Italia Photovogue, Success for Home magazine and several other magazines and blogs, and has been a recipient of the Brides Choice awards 2010–2015. In addition to portraiture, she is currently Creative Director and Head photographer at a local online retail/ecommerce business. She has been teaching photography classes for adults and children as a way to share her love for her craft.

9:00 am – 12:00 pm

Beverly Edwards

Experience the wonders and delights of scrapbooking while creating a memory book that will become a well-loved family treasure! You will learn how to design original, imaginative pages for a scrapbook of your own, deciding whether you would like to focus on a particular theme, such as travel, family, holidays, school, pets, sports or special events. Creative scrapbooking tools, such as fancy scissors, punches, stickers, die cuts and other embellishments make this activity loads of fun! Bring a friend or gain some new ones as you make memories together.

NOTE: A scrapbook, paper, embellishments and access to all scrapbooking tools will be provided. Students must bring their own photos and memorabilia. Please bring a bottle of water and healthy snack with you each day. Materials fee is payable to Instructor on first day of camp.

Beverly Edwards has been an educator for over 30 years. At RPCS, she taught both English and drama on the middle school level until she assumed her current position as the Lower School Librarian. She holds a BA and an MMS from Loyola University, as well as a Master's in School Library Media from McDaniel College. Beverly is an avid "scraper" who enjoys sharing her craft with children.

Anita Horwath

Fairies dance! Fairies play! Fairies explore! Each day we will dream up fairy stories to perform and enjoy a scrumptious fairy snack. We will dabble in fairy crafts and use our imaginations. No fairy is complete without magic wings and a wand, plus fantastic fairy face and hair paint at the end of the week! Join your friends in the fairy world as we celebrate the power of imagination and creativity.

NOTE: Materials fee is payable to the Instructor on the first day of camp. A delicious and healthy snack will be provided each day.

Anita Horwath is a professional actress, and teaches Creative Drama in the Lower School After School program at Roland Park Country School and Baltimore School for the Arts.

Holly McAslan

This camp is designed to introduce children to the wonderful art and style of the French master Henri Matisse. His art is more popular than ever, and you will learn his method of “painting with scissors” otherwise known as collage, as well as his colorful style of painting using complementary colors and vivid patterns. Matisse also sculpted; and you will experiment with clay, to make your own piece. You will experiment with painting styles of other French Impressionist artists like Monet, Van Gogh and Seurat to name a few. You will learn interesting facts about the life of Matisse and why Baltimore is home to more of his art than any other place in the world! This will be a memorable week of art, creativity and fun!

NOTE: Materials fee payable to Instructor on the first day of Camp. Please bring a bottle of water and healthy snack with you each day.

Holly McAslan holds an MA in Education from The Notre Dame of Maryland University, a BA in Communications Art from Muhlenberg College, is a graduate in 2-D design from The Maryland Institute College of Art and is a Maryland State Certified Art Teacher. Holly teaches Lower School and Preschool Art at RPCS.

Ellen Krich

Jr. Edition • Age 8–10: Indulge yourself in a week of writing! During this camp, you will receive instruction on mechanics, content, organization and techniques for writing a variety of genres. Each day will feature group instruction using models from literature, time for individual writing, one-on-one teacher/student guidance, and feedback in workshop format. We will begin each day with engaging writing games and exercises, and we will use the RPCS Backwoods for picnic snacks and nature writing. On Thursday, we will journey to the Baltimore Museum of Art to write poetry about the artwork and to enjoy lunch in the sculpture garden. At the end of the week, you will have a wonderful portfolio of your own creative writing and journals.

Age 11–15: Enjoy a week of creative writing with genres of your choice, including a one-act play, short stories, poetry and creative essays. Each day will include writing games, journaling, a mini-lesson, and time for writing and guided revision in workshop format. You will be instructed on descriptive writing technique and will read excerpts from thought provoking literature providing you with examples of outstanding creative voice. You will write nature poetry on location in the RPCS Backwoods, while studying Robert Frost and other nature poets. This will be a guided nature tour that will help you work on naming trees and plants in your poetry. Our week will also include a field trip to the Baltimore Museum of Art where we will spend time in the sculpture garden, inspired by art, writing about paintings and sculptures, just as many famous writers have done. The week will culminate in a production of your own portfolio of writing gems. You will have access to technology in order to publish your work with flair and illustrations.

NOTE: Materials fee is payable to Instructor on the first day of Camp. Please bring a bottle of water and healthy snack each day and a lunch on Thursday.

Ellen Krich currently teaches creative and analytical writing to Grade 7 at Roland Park Country School and previously to Grades 9, 10 and 12. She has a BA in Creative Writing from the Johns Hopkins University and MA in leadership in teaching with a concentration in analytical writing from Notre Dame University.

Chef Nancy Longo

A summer cooking class for budding young chefs! Students will learn cooking techniques and see how a restaurant kitchen works as they prepare recipes with Chef Nancy Longo at Pierpoint Restaurant in Fells Point. Aprons will be provided, as well as lunch and beverages. Campers will also be able to bring home their prepared food and recipes of the day for family to enjoy! Class size is limited, so we encourage early registration.

Program One: MEXICAN FOODS, DIM SUM, PASTA & BRUNCH

Learn how to make homemade tortillas, salsa, fajitas, dumplings, spring rolls, eggrolls and Asian sauces, as well as homemade pasta, raviolis and Italian sauces. We will also learn to make omelettes, quiches and other brunch foods.

Program Two: CHOCOLATES, CAKES, TARTS, POOL PARTY FOOD & SOUPS

Learn how to make homemade chocolates, icings, truffles, tarts and pies, as well as party appetizers and salads, and a large array of soups.

NOTE: Camp is held at Pierpoint Restaurant. Transportation from RPCS will be provided; school bus will depart promptly at 9:15 am. For safety reasons and Health Department regulations, please follow the dress code: all campers must be dressed in kitchen ready clothes; no sleeveless shirts and no sandals or flip flops.

Chef Nancy Longo is owner and executive chef of Pierpoint Restaurant, opened in 1980. Nancy started cooking at the age of 7 with her Italian grandmother. She graduated from Baltimore's International Culinary College in 1983. Chef Nancy and Pierpoint have consistently been given high reviews, and recently Nancy was named one of Maryland's 100 Most Successful Women by Warfield's Business Record.

TINY CHEFS COOKING CAMP

Tuesday through Friday, July 5–8

Tiny Chefs • Age 5–7 • 9:00 am – 12:00 pm Gourmet Chefs • Age 8–10 • 1:00 – 4:00 pm

Continue the 4th of July celebration with your favorite summer recipes! American cuisine is inspired by cultures around the world but has become uniquely and deliciously its own. For most Americans, nothing says summer like hamburgers, hot dogs and potato salad. And while some of those items are definitely on our All American Summer Menu, we are also going to explore American cuisine from sea to shining sea, from Southern BBQ to California's twist on the BLT to the countrywide favorite Strawberry Shortcake! Come dive into summer with Tiny Chefs.

Program Two: SNACK ATTACK

Monday through Friday, July 11–15

Tiny Chefs • Age 5–7 • 9:00 am–12:00 pm Gourmet Chefs • Age 8–10 • 1:00–4:00 pm

This week students will push the limits on the snack concept and prepare a variety of wholesome, delicious, and unique nibbles. This is not your mother's PB&J! Chefs will prepare a variety of bite-sized munchies like chicken salad cups, homemade granola bars, veggie nachos, roasted red pepper hummus with homemade pita chips, and more. No one will go hungry this week!

NOTE: Please bring a bottle of water and healthy snack with you each day. Campers may also bring a tupperware container to take leftovers home.

Tiny Chefs is dedicated to providing interactive and educational children's cooking classes at schools, camps and community centers within the DC, Maryland and Virginia metroplex. Our philosophy, "learning through cooking," encourages children to discover the joys of cooking while obtaining basic educational skills and culinary techniques. Our instructors teach kids to follow recipes, measure and combine ingredients, and work together on a team all while promoting personal creativity. We strive to instill health-conscious values in kids along with the confidence to experiment with their own creations in the future.

Victoria DeSalvo

Little Warriors is a special week long camp where we will explore the movement of our bodies, the gift of our breath and the power of our mind, thoughts and emotions. We will practice yoga postures and sequences daily. You will be guided through mindfulness and meditation, and will be taught simple breathing techniques that will aid in stress management and concentration. We will partake in arts and crafts relating to yoga and relaxation, nature hikes to connect with the earth and sun, games to promote kindness and community, music and chanting and personal time for journaling, drawing and reflecting. We will even create our own individual yoga mats! Yoga is wonderful opportunity for children to enhance creativity, grow in self awareness through movement and relax their bodies and minds. Join us for a week of Little Warriors!

Victoria DeSalvo received her 200 Hour-YT certificate from BambooMoves in Englewood, NJ in 2012. She moved to Baltimore in 2013 to pursue a career in yoga. Victoria works as a toddler teacher at RPCS in Little Bear Child Care Center. Her passion for peace and harmony in her surroundings accompanied by her warm, gentle attitude fosters a safe and supportive space for practitioners new and old.

9:00 am – 12:00 pm

International School of Protocol

Program One: SOCIAL SKILLS

Join us for an exciting fun-filled week of manners instruction with an emphasis on social skills. New research confirms the importance of acquiring and practicing social skills at a young age for success in later life. Campers will play and have fun while learning behaviors for social interactions. Specific topics will include: handshaking, speaking clearly, eye contact, introductions, common courtesies, sitting still, including others, respecting differences, sharing, and the importance of saying please, thank you, you're welcome and excuse me.

Plus, each camper will learn how to be a respectful host and a respectful guest, behavior at the table, behavior in public, and gift giving and receiving. The children will create a manners book to share with you at home!

Program Two: COMMUNICATION SKILLS

Discover a new way to learn manners while having fun and acquiring important communication skills. This week long camp will introduce and reinforce ways to greet, make and keep friends, give compliments and share. Additional topics include not interrupting or whining, making eye contact, listening, using “magic words,” table manners, respectful behavior in school, conversation skills, and telephone manners. The children will create a manners book to share with you at home! Join us for an exciting fun-filled week of manners instruction with an emphasis on communication skills.

The International School of Protocol is the leader in providing training and consultation services to adults and children to enhance interpersonal skills and personal effectiveness.

9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Hannah Pickworth

Join us for a unique camp experience that explores peace-building concepts through nature. Each day our own RPCS bus will take us to Woodberry Crossing, an educational farm in Parkton where you will explore over 100 acres of woods, fields, paths and streams. The Center is filled with wildflowers, plants, birds, butterflies and farm animals including donkeys, emus, sheep, goats, turkeys, chickens and alpacas.

In this peaceful environment, you will enjoy swimming, hiking, stream walking, gardening and caring for animals. While having fun, we will explore ways to be peaceful citizens through crafts, storytelling, cooperative games and skits. You'll make healthy choices about respecting yourself and others, caring for the environment and understanding the interdependence of all things, being a friend and helping others.

NOTE: Transportation from RPCS will be provided. School bus will depart promptly at 9:00 am. Please bring bottled water, healthy snack and lunch each day. This wonderful camp experience will be facilitated through the Baltimore Peace Study Center.

Hannah Pickworth is a retired librarian from Roland Park Country School. She is one of the founders of the Peace Study Center, a non-profit resource center providing materials for young children and their caregivers to enable children to make peaceful choices in their lives.

ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE SUMMER RESEARCH EXPERIENCE FOR YOUNG WOMEN (E.S.S.R.E.)

For girls who have completed 9th Grade

Monday through Friday, July 11 – 29

9:00 am – 4:00 pm

David Brock

Now in its 16th year, E.S.S.R.E. is a unique, nationally recognized three-week research internship available to high school girls from the greater Baltimore area. Participants explore the soil chemistry and organisms of the RPCS woodland campus, engage in self-directed field research and learn a wide range of general research skills such as statistical analyses and writing peer-reviewed scientific papers. Working in research teams, the interns also learn how to author lab activities for studying soil ecology in other settings and they design web pages to disseminate these labs via the program's website. For their time and training, each intern receives a small stipend of $500. To learn more about the program, visit <http://essre.rpcs.org> and if interested in applying, contact the Project Director, David Brock, at brockda@rpcs.org. Prerequisites include a year of high school biology or environmental science with a grade of "B" or better, successful completion of the ninth grade, and a letter of nomination from a science teacher. Deadline for applying is April 30, 2016. Space in the program is limited.

NOTE: Do not use the Kaleidoscope registration form to apply for this program. Acceptance to E.S.S.R.E. is highly competitive and requires a separate application submitted through the Program Director. Contact David Brock at brockda@rpcs.org.

BIG TOP BUDDIES & CIRCUS CAMP STARS

AGE 6 – 12

Monday through Friday, June 20 – 24

$325

9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Michael Rosman

Come join the Circus! Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus College graduate and circus veteran Michael Rosman and his team of coaches will teach you the skills you need for success such as juggling, tight wire walking, balancing, stilt walking, and clowning. Younger campers will get a taste of the circus life with simple but fun skills like spinning plates, balancing feathers/sticks and juggling scarves. Campers will participate in acrobatics, clowning and circus-themed arts and crafts projects. Thursday is pie-in-the-face day and a big show starring all of the campers will be presented for friends and family on Friday.

NOTE: All campers will receive a t-shirt and juggling bean bags. Please specify your child's t-shirt size at the time of registration. Please bring lunch, a bottle of water and healthy snack each day.

Michael Rosman is a Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Circus college graduate and circus veteran. As a comedy juggler and circus star, he has been entertaining audiences around the world for over 25 years.

Program Two: Monday through Friday, June 27 – July 1

Materials fee: $25

9:00 am – 12:00 pm

Toni Woodlon

Step dance is a form of percussive dance in which the entire body is used to make rhythmic sound. Stomping, clapping, and spoken word are used to produce a choreographed series of steps. The spoken word component of step dance is used to convey a message of pride, confidence and unity. Mrs. Woodlon provides step dance instruction for purposes of fitness, fun and entertainment. You will become aware of your bodily strength and movement and become more coordinated and self-confident. On the final day of camp, the step dancers will perform for friends and family.

NOTE: Materials fee is payable to Instructor on the first day of camp. Steppers should dress comfortably and wear tennis shoes to camp. Each camper will receive a customized t-shirt to perform in on the final day. Please bring bottled water and a healthy snack each day.

Toni Woodlon has taught step dance for nine years in Baltimore City Public Schools. Her company, S.T.E.P.S. LLC, Striving Toward Educational and Personal Success, is currently contracted in partnership with Elev8 Baltimore to provide step dance instruction to elementary/middle school girls. When not teaching step dance, Toni is a 3rd Grade teacher at Roland Park Country School.

Program Two: Monday through Friday, July 11 – 15

Materials Fee: $15

9:00 am – 3:00 pm

Leah Inger & Fatima Petersen

Does your child love to perform? Or does your child need a boost of confidence to step into the spotlight? Singing games, improv, vocal exercises and theater games will take your child to the next level. Through individual and group instruction, campers will prepare for a culminating performance of monologues, solos and musical theater scenes. No prior experience necessary--only a love of singing and acting. Our goal is to expand each child's self-confidence and expressive ability by combining vocal technique, acting and "play."

FOR ONE YEAR ONLY!
OnStage! Camp will be held at Roland Park Presbyterian Church at 4801 Roland Avenue,
less than one mile from RPCS

NOTE: Directions to Roland Park Presbyterian Church will be provided upon registration. Materials fee payable to Instructor on the first day of Camp. Please bring bottled water, healthy snack and lunch each day.

Leah Inger is a regular chorister with Washington National Opera and a soloist at Roland Park Presbyterian Church. Ms. Inger holds degrees from Georgetown College, Towson University, and Peabody Conservatory. She has served on the faculty at Towson University since 2008 as an applied voice and opera workshop instructor. Ms. Inger is also an impassioned educator of early childhood music, teaching Preschool through Pre-First as well as Middle School music at RPCS.

Fatima Petersen is a high school choral director. She has also taught middle school choir, guitar, piano, and maintains a private voice and violin studio in Baltimore County. Ms. Petersen was a Theatre & Drama major at Indiana University and she was a Music Education major at Towson University. An alto soloist at Roland Park Presbyterian Church, she is currently pursuing a master's from the Peabody Conservatory at Johns Hopkins University.

BROADWAY BOUND

AGE 6 – 10

Tuesday through Friday, July 5 – 8

$145

9:00 am – 12:00 pm

Anita Horwath

A specially-designed camp for aspiring actors and actresses. Broadway Bound Camp is for children who love theater games, dramatic play, story enactment, imagination journeys and music. There is no pressure to perform. The emphasis is on the process, rather than the product. Being creative with drama lets you learn about emotions, problem solving and relating to others. You will develop your imagination and confidence and pretend to be anything you want to be. Come join us for drama fun! Family and friends will be invited to our "big show" on Friday.

NOTE: Please bring a bottle of water and healthy snack each day.

Anita Horwath is a professional actress and has been a teacher for the Together Working in Gaining Skills (TWIGS) after school program at Baltimore School for the Arts for 20 years. Anita teaches in the Lower School After School program at Roland Park Country School.

9:00 am – 12:15 pm

Patrick Francis

Learning how to drive is one of the most exciting milestones of a teenager's life – but safe driving must be taught. Our highly qualified instructor from Roland Park Driving School will be on hand to teach automotive skills in the classroom and behind the wheel. There will be 30 hours of class time at RPCS and six hours on the road. Behind-the-wheel time will be scheduled directly with the instructor at the conclusion of the classroom part of the program. A learner's permit is required for the driving portion of the program. You must be 15 years old to take driver's education class and 15 years 9 months to take the test to get a permit. Arrangements may be made with students living in the local area to be picked up from their home or school for the behind-the-wheel portion of the program.

NOTE: Please bring paper, pen and a bottle of water to class each day.

Before starting Roland Park Driving School, Patrick Francis worked for years in the driver's education business. In addition to teaching classroom and behind-the-wheel instruction, he offers classes on the effects of alcohol on driving and driving improvement courses at his Rotunda classroom location. His calm, patient manner with students in the car have helped hundreds of students obtain their driving license.

Amy Popp

Crime scene investigations are the focus of many TV shows, and we always hear about it on the news, but do you know what really happens? In order to solve crimes, law enforcement often works very closely with a variety of scientists to analyze evidence and get a better idea of what exactly happened at a crime scene. This program will dispel some of the myths shown on TV and teach you what really goes on behind the scenes. You will be introduced to a variety of disciplines such as forensics and biometrics. Each of these areas focuses on the science and technology that is used in the field, in labs and at crime scenes to solve mysteries and identify suspects and victims. If you are interested in learning how people and materials can be identified by different characteristics or you want to know how criminals are caught, this is a great program for you!

NOTE: Materials fee is payable to the Instructor on the first day of camp.

Amy Popp is a chemistry teacher at RPCS. She was also one of the founders of the RPCS STEM Institute. Amy earned a BS in Chemistry from the University of Mary Washington and earned a MSSE from the College of William and Mary.

Kim McNemar, RPCS Varsity Lacrosse Coach

Designed and hosted by the RPCS Lacrosse coaching staff, the goal of the RPCS Lacrosse Camp is to have each player leave with stronger fundamental skills, better “game sense,” and new friendships. Whether the camper is a beginner or advanced player, she will be challenged to play to her highest potential, while having fun and working hard.

Our counselors are accomplished independent and public high school players and graduates who are signed with or are currently members of the top collegiate programs in the country. All of our counselors possess position-specific skills, which will give every camper an advanced knowledge of the game. Moreover, they have a passion for lacrosse that is contagious!

NOTE: Campers will be grouped based on skill level and age. All campers need to bring a water bottle and snack, lacrosse stick, mouth guard, goggles and turf shoes or tennis shoes daily.

Kim McNemar is currently the head varsity lacrosse coach at RPCS. Prior to RPCS, she spent 12 years at South River High School, coaching the team to a state championship in 2010, as well earning #7 team in the country. Coach McNemar also coached Catonsville High School to its first state championship win in the 1990's; being the only head coach to win two state championships at different schools.

SCHOOL OF ROCK ON BROADWAY

Saturday, June 11

$269

7:00 am - 8:30 pm

With a book by Julian Fellowes (creator of Downton Abbey), 14 new songs by the legendary Andrew Lloyd Webber (The Phantom of the Opera), School of Rock opened in December to rave reviews from critics! This adaptation of the 2003 movie stars Alex Brightman (Wicked, Matilda) as Dewey Finn, a wannabe rocker who takes a job as a substitute teacher at a prep school to earn a few bucks. Completely disinterested in academic work, Dewey decides to create his own curriculum, turning his class into a guitar-shredding, bass-slapping, mind-blowing rock band. Sierra Boggess takes on the role of Rosalie Mullins, the school principal. She's no stranger to Lloyd Webber productions, having played Christine in The Phantom of the Opera in both New York and London. But, it is the kids, with their incredible voices and musical skills, who will have you on your feet and shouting Encore! It's no wonder they are breaking box office records with 101% capacity at the Winter Garden Theater. This is one class you don't want miss!

NOTE: Full Diversions breakfast provided en route. On return, full dinner and open bar.

Diversions Trip Information:

Diversions trips are intended for adults and young adults, unless otherwise indicated.

All trips depart via motorcoach from the rear parking lot of 7310 Park Heights Avenue promptly at the time indicated.

Diversions trips are non-refundable.

MISTY COPELAND IN ROMEO AND JULIET AT WOLF TRAP

Friday, July 15

$219

6:15 pm - 11:30 pm

At the age of 33, Misty Copeland has emerged as one of the most influential and groundbreaking dancers of her generation.

In June 2015, she was promoted to principal dancer, making her the first African American woman to hold this position in the American Ballet Theater's 75-year history. We will see her perform the lead role in Kenneth MacMillan's masterful interpretation of Shakespeare's enduring romantic tragedy, Romeo and Juliet. Against a sumptuous setting in Renaissance Italy, MacMillan weaves a dance tapestry rich in character nuance and sensuality, and Sergei Prokofiev's stirring music underscores the lyric beauty and passion of this beloved ballet's star-crossed lovers. MacMillan's Romeo and Juliet is an actress's ballet; its weight falls on Juliet's shoulders. It is in many ways her story and with Misty dancing the lead, we know we are in for a memorable show. What a perfect way to spend a summer evening!

NOTE: Wine, gourmet dinner and a 25-minute film on Copeland's life provided en route. Snacks and cold drinks on the return.

IMPRESSIONISM: American Gardens on Canvas at the New York Botanical Garden

Thursday, September 8
6:00 am - 8:30 pm

$249

September is spectacular at the New York Botanical Gardens and this September promises to leave even more of an impression as we celebrate the 125th anniversary of the Gardens with a visit to the exquisite exhibit Impressionism: American Gardens on Canvas.

From the moment you enter the Art Gallery, you will be surrounded by works from leading artists of the American Impressionist movement, including John Singer Sargent, William Merritt Chase and Frederick Childe Hassam, whose masterpiece Horticultural Building, World Columbian Exposition, Chicago opens the show. A private guided tour will include a look at 25 paintings and sculptures, as well as the vintage books, including An Island Garden by poet Celia Thaxter. This treasure gives a detailed account of her garden on Appledore Island, Maine, and was illustrated with lavish watercolors by Hassam

Our tour continues in the Conservatory, where the horticultural exhibition is inspired by An Island Garden as well as several of the paintings on display in the gallery. Vibrant plantings and architectural elements will give visitors the experience of entering living works of art. The show introduces us to trends in American garden design in the late 19th and early 20th Centuries as well as to the plants important to both gardeners and artists.

A delicious private buffet lunch awaits us at Stone Mill, a Natural Historic Landmark dating to 1840, after which we board our private tram for a narrated tour of the hundreds of acres of exquisite gardens. The highlight of the tram tour will be the magnificent Peggy Rockefeller Rose Garden, considered to be one of the best in the world with over 650 varieties of roses.

We will cap this extraordinary day with a visit to the Shop in the Garden filled with one-of-a-kind gifts, apparel, jewelry, home accessories, garden tools and, of course, plants. What a gorgeous way to spend a fall day!

NOTE: A full breakfast will be provided en route. Private luncheon included in your day. On return, enjoy open bar, picnic dinner and award-winning film.

A CULINARY JOURNEY THROUGH SAN DIEGO AND BAJA CALIFORNIA

with a week on the island of Coronado, CA
October 15-22, 2016

Escorted by Ann Schlott Hillers, 1981

Enjoy a glamorous weeklong stay at the Marisol Coronado Hotel, a beautiful boutique in the heart of Coronado, CA. When you're not sampling the outstanding cuisine and sites of southern California, you'll have time to stroll along the powder-soft white-sand beach (voted one of America's most beautiful!), cycle the strand that runs between the bay and the ocean, browse the many stops and specialty stores, and walk the gorgeous, wide boulevards of Coronado, one of the most beautiful communities in the United States. Coronado is also home to a Naval Air Base so you can see fighter jets, F14s, Tomahawks and other naval planes coming in over the sea to land at the base on the north part of the island.

Hotel Marisol Coronado

This fantastic trip includes: daily continental breakfast; welcome reception on October 15; dinner at Chez Loma; hop-on/hop-off trolley pass for a full day of individual touring through Coronado and San Diego providing opportunity to visit Sea World, San Diego Zoo, San Diego Old Town, La Jolla Cove, Balboa Park, Maritime Museum and the Aquarium at Scripps (entrance fees not included); full day excursion with wine tastings, lunch, transportation, and guide to Valle de Guadalupe, Baja California Norte (passport required); lunch at Finca Altozano, a Javier Plascencia favorite in Valle de Guadalupe; excursion to Balboa Park; seven-day Balboa Park explorer pass allowing access to all 17 museums; lunch in North Park at one of the city's terrific foodie haunts, Urban Solace; and dinner in Little Italy at the latest culinary creation of celebrity chef Javier Plascencia, Bracero Cocina Rustica.

For full brochure and itinerary, please contact Dani Kell Steinbach at kellld@rpcs.org or 410-323-5500 ext 3091.

Roland Park Country School

An Education Above at Roland Park Country School sets us apart. While most schools seek to prepare their students for the next academic step we strive to prepare our students for life — a life full of wonder, joy and complexity. We empower our students with the integrity, will and character they need to live a purposeful life. To achieve this, we build a foundation of strong academics. Then we add layers of experiences and opportunities carefully designed to nurture our students' curiosity, creativity, confidence, compassion and leadership delivered by an award-winning, experienced and much loved faculty. This occurs within the context of a genuinely supportive community where every student has multiple friends, mentors and others looking out for her. We are proud of our strength as an academic institution to stand at the forefront of all girls' education as we create tomorrow's world leaders. Roland Park Country School is a college preparatory school for girls in Kindergarten through Grade 12 with a Preschool for girls and boys located in northern Baltimore City.

REGISTRATION

Registrations are processed on a first-received basis. Since camp sizes are limited, prompt registration is recommended to avoid disappointment. To register, send the attached form with a check made payable to Roland Park Country School, or provide us with your credit card information (MasterCard and VISA.) You may also register over the phone by calling 410-323-5500 ext 3045. Full payment is required at the time of registration for all camps except Red Hot Summer Camp and Red Hot Mini Camp. Camp confirmation is provided upon registration.

CANCELLATIONS

RPCS reserves the right to cancel or adjust any program that does not meet the minimum designated enrollment. When feasible, an alternate date will be scheduled for the cancelled camp. Please be sure to call the School at 410-323-5500, ext. 3045 for information regarding all program changes. All sales are final on Diversions trips.

REFUNDS AND FEES

A full refund will be made when a program is cancelled by RPCS, unless otherwise noted. Refunds will be given for cancellations prior to June 1, 2016 for all summer camps. There will be no refunds for cancellations after June 1, 2016. Please note that some programs may have special cancellation policies. A $25 fee will be assessed if a check is returned by the bank.

CAMP LOCATIONS

All camps are held on the RPCS campus, unless otherwise noted. For Red Hot Camp and Red Hot Mini Camp, follow signs from driveway to drop-off/pick-up locations. For all other camps, please enter through the Harris Center main entrance, which is near the flag pole. Room assignments for programs will be posted in the Harris Center.

FOOD ON CAMPUS

Lunch and snacks are provided only when noted in the camp description.

DRESS

T-shirts, shorts and tennis shoes are appropriate apparel for all Summer Camp programs. Campers may not wear short-shorts. Campers may not wear flip flops, Heeleys or "cros" for safety reasons. For Cooking programs, campers must wear a T-shirt (not a tank top or tube top) and closed toed shoes.

RAPTOR SECURITY SYSTEM AT RPCS

Beginning in 2015 RPCS instituted a new policy as an enhancement of our security procedures for visitors. Upon entering the Harris Center, guests will be required to give their license or other government issued photo ID to the receptionist who will scan it with our new Raptor system. A printed visitor badge will be automatically issued for the day. Thank you for your support and use of this system.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Staff members reserve the right to remove any participant whose conduct is disturbing to the group. In this instance, there will be no refunds.

Care is taken to ensure the safety of each individual's possessions; however, RPCS is not responsible for loss or damage to personal property during the operation of summer programs. Labeling of property and clothing is advised.

Registrants/parents agree that the School may use photographs of participants to promote a better understanding of the RPCS programs.

Campers may not bring a cell phone to camp without special permission from the Kaleidoscope office.

RED HOT SUMMER MINI CAMP

Children must be fully toilet trained to attend Camp.

CONSENT FOR PUBLICATION FOR KALEIDOSCOPE

I authorize and give full consent to Roland Park Country School to publish and copyright all photographs in which the individual registered for a Kaleidoscope program appears. I understand and agree that any such photographs may identify his or her name. I also understand and agree that the enrolled individual's name may be included in press releases and in photo captions on the RPCS website. I further agree that RPCS may transfer, use or cause to be used, these photographs and/or names in School brochures, newsletters, magazines, advertising posters, newsletter or magazine advertising, displays, slide presentations, PowerPoint presentations, videotapes, viewbooks, catalogs, all like publications or literature, and on the School's internet web page, Twitter, Facebook, Instagram or other social media vehicle without limitations and reservations.
