DIRECTOR'S NOTE

It is a matter of great pride, privilege and pleasure to present to you the Graduating Batch of 2017.

NLIU, as one of the premier law schools in the country, is equipped with state of the art infrastructure, distinctive pedagogy, and a diverse confluence of students. The academic atmosphere at the University is committed towards imparting quality and holistic legal education to invoke curiosity and encourage initiative. The precise blend of classroom teaching and rigorous evaluation enables the students to strengthen their conceptual and analytical foundations of law. They have developed the ability to ask the right questions to seek the right answers.

Over the years, this Batch has displayed tremendous zeal to develop a strong legal acumen and satisfy their intellectual curiosity. I have witnessed the students explore their tremendous potential, seizing myriad opportunities and responsibilities presented to them; be it participation at distinguished national and international competitions, or being at the forefront of every event organised by the University.

I am convinced that these students shall prove to be an asset for your organisation with their skill, knowledge, attitude and enthusiasm. I invite you to visit our campus and wish all the recruiters a pleasant and satisfactory experience here at NLIU.

Prof. (Dr.) S. S. Singh

Director,

National Law Institute University, Bhopal

MESSAGE FROM THE FACULTY CO-ORDINATOR

I am pleased to introduce the Batch of 2017 of NLIU which has versatility and dedication and commitment towards the goal it has set for itself. The Batch has excellent communication and analytical capabilities. They are a bunch of intelligent and hardworking students. They are team workers and innovative in their approach.

They have excelled in various fields like academics, sports and culture in the University. The students of Batch 2017 will be an asset to any organisation they join.

I wish them all the best!

Dr. Raka Arya

Placement Coordinator,

National Law Institute University, Bhopal

ABOUT NLIU

The National Law Institute University, Bhopal (NLIU) was established under Act No. 41 of the Madhya Pradesh Legislature in 1997 and pioneered its first academic programme in 1998. A member of the Association of Indian Universities and patronized by the Hon'ble Chief Justice of India, it works in close association with the High Court of Madhya Pradesh and National Judicial Academy, Bhopal.

The University proffers superlative infrastructure infused with a commendably comprehensive academic culture that stands second to none. It proudly nurtures the best of brains, spanning all over the nation, honing their skills to create better individuals. NLIU has been successful in fructifying its efforts to catalyze an all-round development of its students, ranging from academic excellence to extra-curricular activities; from top-notch research abilities to encouraging participation of students for community emancipation. The University has fostered lucrative partnership with many eminent institutions like University of Lucerne in Switzerland, Georgia State University and University of Washington in Seattle, USA, McGill University, Canada and Leiden University in Netherlands, augmenting multi-faceted growth of students.

A gratifying testimony to the success of NLIU is its exemplary faculty and accomplished alumni. Students have also made their alma mater proud at premier institutions like Harvard Law School, Oxford University, University of Manchester, National University of Singapore, and University of Warwick. NLIU, thus, strives in aeternum, to strengthen students with valuable attributes of competence, confidence, righteousness, equipping them to become promising professionals in future.

CAMPUS & INFRASTRUCTURE

The sprawling 40 acre campus of the University is located in the harmonious haven of lakes with its state of the art infrastructure. This includes two aesthetically designed academic blocks with air conditioned classrooms and modern audio-visual aids of teaching; residential facilities for staff and separate hostels for boys and girls; a recently constructed General Store and Health Care Centre; as well as a fully furnished Guest House for lodging. Some of the hallmark structures that set NLIU apart from other institutions include the following:

Gyan Mandir

Standing true to its name, it is one of the best libraries across law colleges in India. It houses a state-of-the-art computer centre replete with the latest genre of computers and internet facilities. The Gyan Mandir is also equipped with conference rooms, faculty chambers and video conferencing facilities. The library provides a rich collection of books, journals and law reports as well as a large collection of e-resources like Lexis Nexis, Hein Online, JSTOR, SCC Online, Manupatra, WestLaw etc.

Rajiv Gandhi Cyber Law Centre

A Centre of Excellence in Cyber Law is a unique establishment of the Ministry of Human Resource and Development, Government of India that deals with new and critical issues relating to cyberspace. The Centre houses a Conference hall, along with several air conditioned classrooms with audio-visual facility and a library tailor-made for research in this field.

Auditorium

The 300-seater auditorium with state of the art audio-visual technology serves as an able venue for various seminars, workshops, cultural programmes, moot competitions and the annual convocation of the University.

Sports Complex

Unlike most law schools, NLIU boasts of a fully equipped sports complex with a gymnasium and as well as provisions for Pool, Billiards, Snooker, Table Tennis, and Badminton, amongst other sports. Adjacent to the complex, there are well maintained grounds for Football, Basketball, Volleyball and Lawn Tennis.

ACADEMIC STRUCTURE & PEDAGOGY

With a total intake of 120 students annually, NLIU hosts over 600 students enrolled in both Graduate and Undergraduate programmes. The integrated five year B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) programme and the one year LL.M. programme accept students through the intensive Common Law Admission Test (CLAT). Additionally, the University provides a postgraduate course called the Master of Science in Cyber Law and Information Security (MSCLIS) as well as a Ph.D. programme.

Exchange Programmes

- The Centre for Advanced Study and Research on Intellectual Property (CASRIP) of the University of Washington, Seattle, USA, offers scholarships to two students every year to attend their summer workshop on Intellectual Property Law.
- The University of Lucerne, Switzerland accepts two students every year for a student exchange programme.
- Georgia State University, USA for exchange of students & teachers.
- Institute of Air & Space Law, Faculty of Law, McGill University, Canada.
- Leiden University, Netherlands.

Teaching Methodology

NLIU is one of the two Law Universities in India that follows the intensive trimester system for the BALLB (Hons.) programme, wherein the year is divided into three trimesters of about 60 working days each. Interestingly, besides the submission of written projects and their presentation for every subject, NLIU is the only University that has mid-term and end-term exams within each trimester. Thus, throughout 15 Trimesters, every student undergoes a rigorous schedule of 5250 Compulsory Credit Hours, 750 Compulsory Clinical Hours, 140 Written Examinations, 240 days of Work Experience, 66 Compulsory Research Papers, 7 Compulsory Seminar Papers and 73 Compulsory Oral Presentations.

The students are trained to perceive legal problems in their multi-dimensionality, thereby contributing to the training of socially conscious professionals. The faculty prepares extensive teaching material, which is revised and updated regularly to aid the lectures. In each trimester, students are taught four core courses and at least two skill courses like Legal Writing, Computer Science, Accountancy, etc. In the final year, along with compulsory subjects, students can choose their own elective courses for their specialization.

PLACEMENT COORDINATION COMMITTEE

The Placement Coordination Committee (PCC) has been set up with the purpose of serving as a transparent, credible and accountable interface between prospective employers and graduating students. It is engaged in coordinating internships and placements, for which it seeks to instil functional knowledge and specific skills amongst the students by:

1. Organising workshops and seminars conducted by various luminaries on:
  - Placement-related subjects and topics
  - Resume Writing
  - Group Discussion & Personal Interview Process
  - Judicial Services & Civil Services
2. Organising regular career counselling, mock interviews and group discussion programmes for the graduating batch.
3. Maintaining a catalogue of recent developments in the field of law to generate awareness amongst students.

The PCC works to ensure that final recruitments are conducted in a fair and transparent manner so as to maximize the interest of both the students and recruiters.

PLACEMENT PROCESS

A. Pre-Placement Offer (PPO)

According to the placement rules at NLIU, prospective employers are requested to intimate the PCC of any PPO to any student of the Batch of 2017 by 15th March, 2016.

B. Campus Placement

Placement at NLIU shall commence in the month of April and Day Zero is scheduled for 1st - 3rd April, 2016.

Pre-Placement Talk (PPT): The recruiters may engage the students in an interactive session, either on campus or through video-conferencing, highlighting the salient features of the organisation, the job profile being offered, remuneration, terms and conditions of employment and other relevant information as the recruiter thinks fit. They may also conduct lectures on niche areas of law. Such PPTs may be conducted from 26th – 31st March, 2016. The recruiters are urged to indicate their preferred dates for such talks to the PCC, either by e-mail or telephonic communication, at least a week in advance. Slots shall be allotted strictly on a first-cum-first serve basis.

Recruitment: Recruiters are welcome to follow their own recruitment process, broadly within the framework of Group Discussions, Written Tests and Personal Interviews. Organisations can also opt for Telephonic Interviews and interviews via Video Conferencing. Any screening process that the recruiters wish to conduct prior to the interview shall take place on 31st March, 2016. The recruiters are requested to intimate the PCC with their preferred dates in the final placement schedule at the earliest.

Placement Rules

- If a member of the Campus Recruitment Process receives an offer of employment independent of the PCC and accepts it, he/she will be barred from any further participation in the Placement Process.
- If a member of the Placement Process receives an offer of employment, it would be deemed to be an acceptance of the offer by the member. Thereafter that member is barred from any further participation in the Placement Process.
- With more than one employer recruiting from the campus on the same day, the results will be declared after all the interviews for the day are over and if a candidate is selected by more than one organization, the choice of selection lies with the candidate. Thereafter the candidate is barred from any further participation in the Campus Placement Process. In such a scenario, the prospective employers are urged to provide a waiting list of candidates.

Decision of the Faculty Co-ordinator (PCC) regarding any dispute arising during the course of the entire Campus Placement Process will be taken keeping in mind the larger interest of the students and will be final and binding upon all interested parties.

Important Dates

Last Date for Communication of Pre Placement Offer (PPO) : 15 March 2016

Conduction of Pre-Placement Talks (PPTs) : 26 – 31 March 2016

Commencement of Campus Placement Process ( Day Zero of Recruitment ) : 01 – 03 April 2016
