Penal Measures

The competent authority may impose penal measures on any student found guilty of any of the acts of indiscipline or misconduct mentioned above.

Anti-Ragging Committee

Any form of ragging within the premises of the EFL University will be viewed seriously and dealt with swiftly and severely by the administration. Prohibition of and Punishment for Ragging of the English and Foreign Languages University). Anti-ragging squads and an Anti-Ragging Committee will be empowered to take suomoto action upon receiving a complaint. As per the direction of the Supreme Court of India, if any incident of ragging comes to the notice of the authority, the concerned student shall be given liberty to explain and if his explanation is not found satisfactory, the authority would expel him from the University.

Anti-Sexual Harassment and Redressal Mechanism

The EFL University has evolved a policy against sexual harassment to create for women students on its campuses a gender-just and secure environment. (vide Ordinance 30, entitled Gender Sensitization Prevention and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of the English and Foreign Languages University.) Every Campus of the EFL University has a Complaints Committee, with representatives from all sections of the university, to take care of the complaints of women students in this regard, with the names, addresses and phone numbers of the members displayed in all prominent places in the campus. The complaints are kept confidential and the committee has the power to recommend severe action(s) against the perpetrators. The Committee also takes upon itself the task of organizing various gender sensitization programmes. There is also an Appellate Committee to consider problems when the Complaints Committees decisions are not found satisfactory.

Grievance Redressal Mechanism For All Students

All grievances within the University will be resolved through discussions and negotiations and through a Grievance-Redressal mechanism. The following are some of them:

- Grievances with regard to the hostels may be referred to the Provost/Warden concerned.
- Individual grievances may be referred to teachers in each department who will be appointed staff advisers.
- Group grievances may be resolved within the Department
- Miscellaneous grievances with regard to Library/Finance/Sports will be resolved by the committee concerned.
- Academic grievances of students: Students aggrieved on the grade awarded in a course may apply in a prescribed form along with a fee of Rs. 100/- for each course to the Head of the department giving reasons for his/her feeling aggrieved within one month of the notification of the results. A committee will examine the case and the final grade awarded as a result of review will be final.

All grievances should be submitted to the appropriate body within reasonable time but not more than two weeks after the event at issue.

Hostel Accommodation

EFL University is not a residential university; it does not promise accommodation to every student. The University has five hostels meant for regular students, including two for international students. Subject to availability, hostel rooms are allotted, on a sharing basis, to students from outside City, Hyderabad, pursuing full-time courses at the University. Students provided such accommodation have to abide by the hostel rules and regulations.

Students are required to vacate their rooms during the winter vacation (December) and the summer vacation (May to July), so that guests of the University and participants of short-term courses can be accommodated on the campus. They may also be asked to vacate the rooms when repairs and maintenance jobs need to be taken up.
