A Foreign Affair that Founded Symbiosis

The journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step. But, it is the first step that involves deliberation and much hesitation. The Symbiosis journey however began with a surge of enthusiasm spurred on by an incident that, in itself, makes a poignant tale.

“It was an afternoon on a hot day. I was standing near the window of my house overlooking the first hostel block, of which I was the rector. A strange thing happened. A girl walked up to the window of the boys’ hostel room, quickly handed over something and disappeared. My curiosity was aroused and I kept watching the girl walking up to the window day after day and suspected, like any other rector would, that an affair was afoot. So one day, I made up my mind and walked up to the door and knocked. When the door opened, I saw a Mauritian student lying in bed. His face was pale and his eyes seemed to have sunken low. I was puzzled.”

“When I turned to the boy for an explanation, he said, ‘ Sir, I have an attack of jaundice & I’m feeling extremely weak. I cannot stand up, nor walk a few steps. A girl from my country brings me food. However, since ladies are not allowed to enter the boys’ hostel, she hands over the tiffin box through the window.’

I was stunned. After all, it wasn’t the type of ‘affair’ I had expected. I was very much pained & decided something had to be done about this. That was the instance, the golden moment that Symbiosis was born.”

Symbiosis is a term in life science, meaning ‘living together of two different organisms, for the benefit of each other’. Dr. Mujumdar, himself a professor of botany, thought this name apt for the institution.

Thus the institution was founded to alleviate the problems faced by foreign students coming to India. At the time, these problems included - accommodation, meals, medical care, guidance, coaching, information about the city, etc.

Symbiosis has come a long way since then. Today it is a home to students from more than 80 different countries. These students are offered the best learning resources, industry exposure, a strong international students’ alumni network, a global recognition, and above all, a truly enriching Indian experience.

—Message by Chancellor—

Symbiosis Centre for International Education (SCIE)

The Symbiosis Centre for International Education (SCIE) is an integral part of the University, providing leadership and support to internationalize the campus and the curricula. International students from over 85 countries pursue their undergraduate and postgraduate studies at Symbiosis. Students and faculty are provided with opportunities to pursue their international academic interests to the fullest, be it through academic exchanges, or exposure to international conferences, seminars, workshops and other resources.

Internationalization at Symbiosis works on multiple tracks, for which the Symbiosis Centre for International Education has three departments:

- International Student Admissions & Student Events
- International Initiatives and Collaborations
- International Promotions and International Student Relations

International Student Admissions & Student Events

International Student Admissions

Admissions of international students are centralized for all the constituent institutes of Symbiosis International University and routed through the SCIE. The procedure for applying for admissions at SCIE is designed taking into consideration the requirements and difficulties faced by international students. The online admission procedure has made it accessible to each and every student to apply from different parts of the world and in the comfort of their homes. The student needs to come to India only when the applicant is shortlisted for a particular program chosen by the student. Software has been tailor-made to suit the admission procedure. The admission procedure is simplified in easy steps starting from the basic eligibility, checking of important documents to be submitted until the final payment, and confirming the admission. Through the system of online admissions, students are also able to make all their payments online and check the admission status online.

International Student Events

Apart from all admission related activities, SCIE organizes a variety of activities where international students of Pune city are able to meet on a common platform and display their many talents. As a part of enriching students' international experience, SCIE organizes the Food Festival, the Flag Hoisting Ceremony, NGO visits, Blood Donation Camps, Tree Plantation ceremonies, Iftar Party, Christmas Party, Diwali Party, Dance Competition and Sports activities like football tournament and many more.

SCIE also organizes the International Students' Convocation Ceremony. The convocation ceremony is an important landmark in a student's life. It is normally organized by universities in India during the month of December. But since most foreign students have already left India by this time, they are deprived of this wonderful memory. SCIE aims to fulfil a students' dream of walking down the aisle with a robe and cap by organizing the International Students Convocation Ceremony.

SCIE strives to provide international students' with assistance, support and guidance to solve all their problems and make their international experience a fruitful one.

SCIE is assisted in such activities by the International Students' Council. The International Students' Council is an elected body for the smooth functioning of the activities and events of international students. The International Students' Council consists of the posts like President, Vice President, General Secretary, Sports Coordinator, Cultural Coordinator, Finance Coordinator, Public Relations Coordinator, Student Care Coordinator and Administrative Coordinator.

Examination and Evaluation Pattern of the University

Choice Based Credit System (CBCS):

- Grading / Marking Scheme
- Standard of Passing
- Award of Degree
- Atkt and Validity of Terms

Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) System for Academic Programs

All Programs of University shall follow the total credits as recommended by Board of Studies and approved by the Academic Council and will adhere to the distribution of continuous evaluation and term end examination prescribed in the approved Programme structure.

Over & above, mandatory 1 credit is allotted to Integrated Disaster Management course which is evaluated but not included in calculation of GPA.

Calculation of Grade point

The grade points corresponding to nine grades will be as follows:

LETTER GRADE	PROPORTION	GRADE POINT
O (Outstanding)	Top 3%	10
A+ (Excellent)	12%	9
A (Very Good)	21%	8
B+ (Good)	28%	7
B (Above Average)	21%	6
C (Average)	12%	5
P (Pass)	Bottom 3%	4

Relative grading: The grading of students will be done based on the relative performance of the students compared to the class.

- Continuous Assessment, Term-end examination and Practical (if any) will be separate heads of passing.
- Passing in a course means securing 40% of absolute marks in each of the heads.

- Separate grade points will be calculated for continuous and term-end examinations and the weighted average of both will be the grade point for the course.

Re-evaluation: In case of re-evaluation, the scores obtained will be fitted as per original range of marks of the grades.

Backlog Examinations: In case of students appearing for Backlog examination, the marks secured in the subsequent attempt will be fitted back into the earlier distribution i.e. Original range of marks of the grades.

Calculation of GPA for Semester and Overall CGPA: The Grade Point Average for the semester will be calculated by taking the weighted average of the course Grade points.

The weights will be defined as per the credit points they carry. Similarly the CGPA for the Programme will be calculated by taking the weighted average of the semester grade points where the total credit for the semester will act as the weight. The formula is as below:

$$\text{CGPA} = \frac{\{ (\text{GPA of Sem. I}) (\text{Credit Points of Sem. I}) + (\text{GPA of Sem. II}) (\text{Credit Points of Sem. II}) + (\text{GPA of Sem. III}) (\text{Credit Points of Sem. III}) + (\text{GPA of Sem. IV}) (\text{Credit Points of Sem. IV}) \}}{\{ \text{Total Credit Points} \}}$$

CGPA will be calculated up to two decimal points.

Standard of passing: A student has to pass both internal and external examination separately i.e., obtain minimum GP of 4.00. A GP less than 4.00 will be treated as grade F (fail).

A student will be awarded the degree only if he/she has a CGPA of minimum 4.00 on the completion of Programme and has cleared Integrated Disaster Management Programme.

Conversion of CGPA to percentage marks:

Percentage = CGPA / 10 * 100

About Institute

SCMHRD, stands as an example for rigour and perfection, which prepares the students for tomorrow's unpredictable events. We believe in inculcating in the students an attitude to constantly adapt to change, watch out for opportunities to grab and hurdles to overcome and to be able to survive in the fast-paced globalized economy. We believe that Management is an applied art and also science and can be best learned and inculcated if live and real time exposure is facilitated. To enable real and live learning we are engaging with various corporates to do live projects on problems that are of immediate concern to the students. The students at SCMHRD not only get a good understanding of the Indian rural heartland but also the international market that they will have to perform in. They get sufficient understanding about what to do as responsible citizens of India and also of the commercial and ethical viability of the strategies that they will propose and implement. We truly believe that SCMHRD is helping to create leaders and entrepreneurs who are in tune with the world around them, are sensitive of their surroundings, are functionally competent and attitudinally positive and most importantly 'those who will sincerely persevere to the best of their ability'.

Programme Profile:

SITM offers a two year full time residential Post Graduate Degree, Master of Business Administration (Telecom Management) with Dual Specialization in Marketing & Finance and Systems & Finance.

Marketing Specialization

The curriculum for Marketing Specialization has been designed keeping in mind the requirements of the industry and the profiles offered to SITM students in this discipline.

Typical profiles offered to marketing students are pre-sales, sales, marketing, business development, business analyst, consultant, product manager, project manager, account manager, bid manager, solutions selling, and so on.

Students learn marketing as a specialization with the help of classroom sessions, case studies and business simulations. It helps students to be well equipped with application of marketing concepts in the real world situations. Students also learn research concepts and research methodologies which can be applied in market research which would enhance their skills in today's complex environment. To add value we offer relevant industry focused training in various semesters. Thus, students are well equipped with sound academic inputs, real time cases, simulation based learning and industry focused training. Research projects / study projects guided by faculty members help students to undertake independent study of specific aspects of business whereas summer projects help students to gain exposure to industry practices. These inputs are coupled with seminars, workshops and panel discussions on contemporary topics in the technology and business domain. The curriculum is thus designed keeping in mind overall development of students. In addition to business and marketing domain knowledge, management students need to be equipped with technology, finance, and general management and communication skills. The core subjects take care of the above skillsets, whereas marketing specialization subjects give an in-depth understanding of the technology, business and marketing.

Systems Specialization

Systems specialization caters to the Industry requirement where the profile demands sound knowledge of technology. The curriculum covers in-depth knowledge of data networks, network design along with telecom technologies. It also covers convergence of networks and services. Finance, communication skills and basics of marketing are imparted as a part of core subjects.

Students learn systems as a specialization with the help of classroom sessions, case studies and technology/network simulations. It helps students to be well equipped with application of ICT concepts in the real world situations. Students also learn research concepts and research methodologies which would enhance their skills in complex environment. To add value we offer relevant industry focused training in various semesters. Thus students are well equipped with sound academic inputs, real time cases, simulation based learning and industry focused training. Research projects / study projects guided by faculty members help students to undertake independent study of specific aspects of business whereas summer projects help students to gain exposure to industry practices. These inputs are coupled with seminars, workshops and panel discussion on contemporary topics in the technology and business domain. The curriculum is thus designed keeping in mind overall development of students.

Students opting for Systems specialization look forward to working as project manager, consultant, pre-sales consultant, business development manager, corporate revenue assurance executive, account manager, process designer, bid managers, and IT-strategist. This is just a sample of set of profiles that are available to students with Systems specialization.

Core Finance Specialisation

This is common to both Marketing & Systems Specialization. Sound knowledge of accounting and finance is at the core of the entire body of knowledge under the stream of management and is necessary for any manager, irrespective of domains or even businesses. Every manager has to understand, appreciate and cope with the financial implications of all managerial decisions. The curriculum for Core Finance specialization is designed keeping in view the requirements and feedback from alumni /industry. As a manager and to become a telecom business leader, one must know Accounting, Finance, Commercial Laws, Taxation and Financial Strategy aspects of the business. The knowledge of these subjects will help students in their profiles as a manager / business leader.

The spirit of Classroom teaching encompasses the fundamentals of theoretical and conceptual learning. It extends its traditional boundaries into the world of interactive learning through case studies, assignments, quizzes and mock presentations by the students.

Group Learning

The students are grouped into syndicates, which encourages a free exchange of ideas. We strongly believe that syndicate learning is vital for creativity. This activity encourages students to understand group dynamics and then perform in groups.

Dynamic Curriculum

The Course structure, academic curriculum and examination process is continuously upgraded. In order to address the existing needs of the industry and in accordance with the academic portfolio, SITM has an Advisory Council consisting of senior management professionals from Industry and Academicians.

Lab Teaching

The lab is extensively used for a few courses such as network, analytics. SITM has an IBM Analytics Lab.

Workshops

The inputs from the speakers in the Guest Lectures are contributed by the industry leaders on a wide range of topics involving managerial, technical and personality development which expands the horizon of knowledge. This process yields the much needed inputs for adding a value proposition to the portfolio of a student at SITM.

Summer Projects

Orientation and Pedagogy

MBA (Operations Management) designed exclusively for Engineers to meet the needs of diverse sectors of economy. Students develop, in-depth strategic understanding of operations systems, their components, contributions, and interactions with other functional areas and the analytical and computer tools necessary to address both strategic and tactical issues. Briefly, SIOM is an Institute that is dedicated to the creation of operation managers who are proficient at improving an organization's operational performance by minimizing 'defects' in the manufacturing and service-related processes. Inspired by the motto of the institution, engineers who step out of the SIOM portals and stride into the corporate world, prove to be prized assets for modern day organizations. The sectors open for career in operations are Manufacturing, Consulting Firms, Retail, Financial Institutions, Transportation and Logistics, Construction, Information Technology and Hospitality. The curriculum motivates the students to understand the business environment holistically and tries to impart problem solving skills with respect to the core values and changing times of the market. Highly advanced state-of-the-art courses and a balanced understanding of technical-analytical, organizational-behavioral aspects of the market makes this program unique.

Our program is strongly research oriented, and emphasizes the early involvement of our students in research projects. Case discussion, research papers and live projects are the major part of pedagogy apart from games, role plays and activity oriented assignments that aid in students conceptual clarity. Students are encouraged to work on several consultancy projects during the two years, apart from minimum two Internships during the program.

Orientation and Pedagogy

SCIT strives to make a paradigm shift from exam orientation to knowledge orientation. SCIT believes in the practice of consolidation wherein the core elements of academic rigor and academic discipline are closely knitted by research, student orientation, brand-building, corporate interface and process automation. To realize this shift SCIT has taken several steps on curricula review and development, student and faculty orientation. Faculty members are oriented towards creating evaluation methodologies from concept-building through application development and not necessarily just elaboration on theory. SCIT emphasizes that academics should trigger research and research should drive academics.

Introduction:

Prof. Vinay Rale M.Sc. Ph.D. (Microbiology, University of Poona, Pune); Post Doctoral (Institute fur Mikrobiologie, Georg August Universitat, Goettingen, Germany DAAD Fellow), FIIM.

Starting with initial work on Single Cell Proteins, Yeast Diversity and Systematics (Doctoral), Dr. Rale shifted to anaerobic “ world” during his first PDF at Goettingen working on intricacies of acetone-butanol fermentation using whey as a feedstock. Upon his return to Abasaheb Garware College, Pune, he was invited by University of Pune to an initial assignment as Reader and eventually as Professor and Head of Microbiology. In a short time span of 10 years his humongous contributions elevated the Department from an incipient stage to world-renowned status. Dr Rale subsequently enjoyed several major and minor postdoctoral stints abroad in Germany and United Kingdom in diverse fields including indigenization of biotechnologies.

Subsequently, Dr. Rale started his own enterprises in the core Microbiology (Consultancy, Production of Microbial Biomass, Technology Development and Knowledge Transfers, etc.) and Food Sciences (Fruity yoghurts, Spreads, Fruit Preserves, etc., first-time import substitutes in India) arenas which achieved prominence and recognition in the industrial fields.

Continuing his interests in the ‘ practicing’ world, Dr. Rale re-entered into research and academics with stints at Deccan Education Society, Pune, as Research Director with multiple responsibilities and later shifted to Vidya Pratishthan’s School of Biotechnology, Baramati, before joining SSBS. Dr. Rale delivered ably in both the organizations.

With versatile and rich experience spanning over 40 years - in teaching, research, administration, marketing, and techno-entrepreneurship and an excellent interface with premier teaching and research institutes and diverse industries, Dr Vinay Rale is back again in a new challenging role as Director of nascent Symbiosis School of Biomedical Sciences (SSBS) since November 2014.

About Institute:

Orientation and Pedagogy

a. Method of Instruction

M.Tech Programs have been designed to transform the students into competent professionals. The institute employs a very effective and interactive teaching-learning process using most recent teaching aids including multimedia. The curriculum has been developed considering the present and future needs of industry and higher education. Teachers prepare detailed presentations, lab manuals and course files to ensure the effectiveness of teaching-learning process. A salient feature of the curriculum is an Internship semester, totally devoted to carrying out projects in the industry. Students of all post graduate Programs spend an entire semester in industry, other organizations, renowned institutions and universities, both in India and abroad, as part of their curriculum. They are encouraged to undertake projects in various areas of the industry to augment their theoretical learning. The emphasis during the Internship is on exposing the students to real life problems in their chosen field of work and their solutions, using a systematic and logical approach employing latest tools, techniques and technologies.

The Institute is making a conscious effort to shift from the traditional classroom teaching learning process to a problem based, project-based and scenario based teaching learning process. Students are given projects or problem statements right in the beginning of the semester and they undertake these projects either in groups or individually, depending on the nature of the project, and are guided by the subject teacher. Large, inter-disciplinary projects are also given and encouraged. For M. Tech courses, emphasis is given on the practical know-how and application of the subject matter and special emphasis is given on problem solving and self-learning.

b. Learning Beyond Classrooms

Students participate in technical fests, present papers in conferences and also undertake projects in Industry during internship to augment their classroom learning with learning outside the classrooms.

c. Industry Interface

It is necessary to give students an insight into the practical aspects of theory taught in the institute. The institute, right from its inception, has ensured industrial participation in curriculum development, guest lectures by experts from Industry, student trainings and internships. In addition to these, several industrial visits are also arranged for students in order to give them an exposure on the practical solutions and industrial environment.

d. Research and Development

SIU started Ph.D. Programme in Engineering from the academic year 2010-2011. Presently 60 research scholars are pursuing their research from Faculty of Engineering. Research equipment and facilities have been established at SIT to carry out high quality basic and applied research. Faculty members send proposals to funding agencies for sponsored R&D projects in emerging areas of research. They also have a large number of publications in refereed journals and are actively engaged in publications. M.Tech students also get an opportunity to work on some sub-areas of larger research problems as their M.Tech projects and thesis. The institute regularly augments necessary equipment and facilities in the identified research areas.

Achievements

- Keeping in view the all-round development of students, various clubs like music and dance club, photography club, fine arts society, innovation and creativity cell, green cell etc. have been started. The students of SIT also actively organize and participate in various activities of technical societies, clubs and student chapters which exist in all departments of the Institute. Prominent among these are Civil Engineering Society of Symbiosis (CESS), Computer Society of India (CSI), IEEE Student Chapter, Mechanical Engineering Students Association (MESA), Society of Automotive Engineers (SAE), Entrepreneurship Promotion and Innovation Cell (EPIC) and others. Some major activities organized by them include StuCon- a Student Conference on Emerging Technologies and Innovation, Student Paper Presentation Competition (SSPPC-2014), Google club activities, zonal rounds of Indo-US Robo League (IURL), workshops on Ferrocement technology and Road safety and road accident prevention.

Dr. Akshay Malhotra guiding students at STU CON(Student Conference on Emerging Technologies and Innovation)

- Akshat Gandhi a student of SIT participated in the Contest Elevation 2014 by Times of India for the case study competition and cleared the zonal and state rounds. He was selected in the nationals held at Delhi at Pragati Maidan, where he stood 3rd in all India. He has received a cash prize of Rs. 25,000 and a scholarship of 50% fee waiver for any higher education in India.

SIT student, Akshat Gandhi, winner at the Contest 'Elevation 2014' by Times of India

- Students of the institute enthusiastically participate in Inter-Institute tournaments of SIU and have been consistently performing well in almost all sports and games. SIT Boys' team won Championship Trophy in the Inter Institute Swimming Competition consecutively for 3 years. SIT students Kaustubh Chatorikar, Samar Manjeshwar, Piyush Kumar and Ms. Japinder Virk were declared winners at different events in the Swimming Competition. SIT students have also represented Symbiosis International University at Inter-University level badminton, squash, football and cricket tournaments.

Winners of the Championship Trophy in Inter Institute Swimming Competition

- As part of Symbiosis Sports Scholarship, the University Sports Board awarded Sports Scholarship to SIT students Arsh Bansal (Athletics), Arnav Johar (Squash) for the academic year 2014-2015. Sports Scholarships of Rs.12000/- each has been awarded to these outstanding sportsmen students of SIU who participated at Intervarsity/National/International or state level tournaments.
- Nisarg Dhuvad a student from Computer Science (2013-17 batch) who has been writing poems from an early age has compiled and published his own book containing some of his poems titled 'Souls of a Broken Past', which is available on amazon and infibeam
- Annual Cultural festival, "REVERB-2015" was organized in Symbiosis Institute of Technology from March 7–9, 2015 which aims at bringing out remarkable and unseen talent among the students not only in the cultural activities but also in managing the event. Various cultural and technical events were organized which clearly depicted the efforts made to realize the founder's dream and resolve to produce Gentlemen Engineers at SIT.

About Institute:

SIG was launched in 2004, as an autonomous institute, with a vision to create a potential trained human resource to meet future industry and society demands of this newly developing technology and welfare of the society at large. Personalities from research, academia, and industry representatives, assisted with a vision to formulate the program.

In the past twelve years, mile stones achieved included, recognition by the AICTE, UGC, warm hearted response of the industry for placements, 100% placements of all eligible students since inception and numerous accolades at the national and international meets.

It is noteworthy that Dr. S. B. Mujumdar launched an institute in this niche' field in 2004 with a futuristic vision, while the Government of India was planning to launch the Indian National GIS Organization to explore full potential of this new technological tool to fulfill the mission like Digital India, smart city.
