

About the Process

Befitting a program of its caliber, admission to the Professional Part-Time MBA (PMBA) program at the Fox School of Business is very competitive. A number of factors are taken into account when choosing our students, including the ability to contribute to team projects and classroom discussions, exposure to a business environment, unique skills, aptitude, potential, and personal goals.

At every point in the application process, our staff is available to answer your questions.

Basic application requirements include:

Completed application;

A non-refundable $60 application fee;

College transcripts (degree and non-degree);

Current resume;

Two letters of recommendation;

Two required essays, and one optional statement. Essay topics are: leadership and statement of goals;

Official Test Scores: Graduate Management Admission Test (GMAT). Official GMAT test scores taken within the last five years. GMAT scores. [code 72S-3T-52];

Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) scores [code 2906-02] for non-native English speakers - unless your degree is from an English language university in a country where English is the native language. TOEFL scores must have been taken within the last two years; and Admissions Interviews are conducted by invitation only, after your application has been submitted.

Applications can be conveniently completed online. All transcripts, recommendation forms, and GMAT scores must be sent separately to the address below:

Professional Part-Time MBA Admissions

Fox School of Business

1801 Liacouras Walk

701 Alter Hall (006-22)

Philadelphia, PA 19122

Notice: All application materials become the property of Temple University and will not be copied, returned, or forwarded.