

IIPM Delhi is the largest management centre in the country with the highest intake of students every academic year. IIPM Delhi has been separately ranked ahead of many of the IIMs on several criteria, by various business and current affairs magazines, time and again. IIPM Delhi is currently located out of a 3.5 acre lush green campus in the Chattarpur area of South Delhi.

The faculties at the institute comprise of experienced individuals from the world of academics and business. They bring with them real life case studies of their experience, enlightening all the attendees. The institute is also known for the lighter side of student life, which provides the best of sporting, recreational and relaxation facilities.

Infrastructure:

IIPM in Delhi provides students with over 50, 000 sq. ft. of built-up infrastructure. It operates from The IIPM Campus at Satbari in South Delhi. Spread across acres of lush green, this campus draws resemblance to any European campus, which provides a perfect setting for academic pursuit in the laps of nature, away from the hustle and bustle of the city. The landscaped greens all around add to the beauty and serenity of the campus.

The IIPM campus is completely Wi-Fi enabled, allowing students free access to the World Wide Web or data servers from any corner of their campuses. With over 30 fully air-conditioned classrooms, all equipped with the latest A/V equipments, IIPM Delhi by far outnumbers any other business school in the country in terms of total number of classroom space offered.

The campus has specially designed auditoriums with the best of acoustics, which can accommodate up to 500 students, conference halls for business presentations and group discussions, recreation centres to rejuvenate oneself and spacious canteens that offer the finest dining experience at a subsidized rate. The IIPM campus has a spacious library covering over 50, 000 titles from the world of business and management, apart from over 50 different journals and magazines from the world over. The IIPM library also has an online indexing and title search facility, enabling students to locate a specific title and its availability, thereby speeding up the search process.

Additionally, the International Campus offers separate sporting facilities in the form of Billiards, Swimming, Golf, Lawn Tennis, Table Tennis, Volleyball, Badminton, Cricket amongst many indoor games like Chess, Carrom, table soccer, etc.

Faculty

Faculty at IIPM in Delhi constitutes a heady mix of youth and experience. With around 70 visiting faculty members and over 100 permanent teaching staffs, the Delhi centre boasts of a strong faculty team, rarely seen in any other management school in the country. The visiting faculties at IIPM on an average, possess around 15-20 years of academic experience in established institutions all over the country. Many of them also bring along a first-hand practical experience of 20-30 years in various organizations, thereby enabling them to communicate to the students their own experience in their field of discussion. Most of the faculty members at IIPM regularly contribute to the exploration and dissemination of knowledge through various national and international forums in the form of lecture sessions, training workshops and round-tables. At the same point of time, they have also expanded their intellectual horizon by contributing in various forms of print media – newspapers, magazines and journals, on various issue based topics, close to their heart. Faculties at IIPM in Delhi also engage in numerous consulting assignments of national and international importance. From the formulation of an Alternate Budget every year to providing consultations to the Planning Commission, from representing FICCI for the development of the entertainment industry to assisting World Bank the right way to fund developmental projects in the country, faculty at IIPM have been associated with considerably many other projects. During all these projects, IIPM students are also recruited to assist the accumulation and assimilation of the right data. The student-faculty relationship at IIPM reaches a new pinnacle beyond the classroom, when they get together in organizing key events at the institute, rivaling each other in sports meets or grooving and jiving together at rock shows.
