Studentship: Students selected for admission for M.Sc. Genomics course will be paid a consolidated stipend of Rs. 1,200/- p.m. till the completion of IV Semester.

Ph.D Enrollment & Eligibility for Admission

On the day of completion of the final examination of the fourth semester, counseling for Ph.D. admission will be conducted. During counseling, the students are expected to express their interest and commitment for continuing in the Ph.D. programme. Among the 24 students, who have completed two years of PG programme, 15 students would be enrolled for immediate Ph.D registration based on their cumulative academic performance in the first four semesters. This selection will be made during the month of May every year. The waitlisted candidates will be enrolled if vacancy arises within three months (i.e. on or before August of that year).

Students can enroll for their Ph.D as per the rules and regulations of Madurai Kamaraj University. Candidates can submit their Ph.D. thesis after the completion of three years with other course requirements (please refer the Ph.D. guidelines of Madurai Kamaraj University).

Guide Selection

The student can choose their research supervisor in the School of Biological Sciences based on their area of interest. Counseling will be done with a committee constituted for the purpose to assess the interest of the candidates, willingness of the guide and to streamline the selection process. If students, wish to continue their Ph.D. work with the same supervisor where they have completed their fourth semester project work that would be favourably considered by the committee. However, the cumulative score obtained in the four semesters would be the major criterion for the candidates to select the guide. The selected candidates would be enrolled for Ph.D. as per the research guidelines of Madurai Kamaraj University.

Fellowship

The fellowship for the students admitted to Ph.D. will be Rs. 12,000/- p.m. + 15% HRA + MA (Rs. 14,150/- p.m.) for first two years and Rs. 14,000/- p.m. + 15% HRA + MA (Rs. 16,450/-) for the third year.

Ph.D Guidelines

Those registered for Ph.D., should undertake a course work on Research Methodology and another paper in the area of Specialization offered by the Research Supervisor. This could be completed in the fifth semester.

At the end of third year the students will appear for the Research Methodology exam as per the regulations of University. Students can submit their Ph.D. thesis 2 years after their completion of Research methodology exam. Every year, students are required to give 2 research project progress presentations in the School. The award of the subsequent year fellowship is based on the recommendations of the supervisor and assessment Committee.

Madurai Kamaraj University's Ph.D. guidelines and regulations are applicable for the Integrated Ph.D. course in all other aspects that are not specified here.
