3. As decided by the Commission, candidates who were not selected because of blank option or invalid option or incomplete options and available vacancies in their turn have been considered and allotted against unfilled vacancies in the order of default option (in the order options occur in the application form i.e. A, B, C, D, E and F)(Vacancies for G (IO in NCB) have been filled up in the Select List).

4. Candidates in the released Reserve List will be en-bloc junior to the candidates in the Select List, irrespective of the marks secured by them.

5. The list of recommended candidates is purely PROVISIONAL and subject to the candidates fulfilling all the eligibility conditions prescribed in the Notice of said examination and also subject to, among other things, thorough verification of their identity with reference to their photographs, signatures, handwritings, etc. on the application forms, admission certificates, etc.

6. The category status in respect of the candidates belonging to reserve categories has been indicated alongwith their roll numbers. It is important for such candidates to note that they may have been declared qualified only for the category mentioned against their Roll Numbers. If any candidate does not actually belong to the category mentioned against his Roll Number or his roll number and name do not match, he will not be eligible to be included in the list. The candidates concerned should therefore, immediately contact the respective Regional Offices of the Commission in all such cases where they do not belong to the category shown against their roll numbers.

7. The Reserve List is available on the Commission's Website: <http://ssc.nic.in>.
