PREFACE

Being in SSC is much like standing at the crossroads of life. The route you choose henceforth ends up being the turning point of your career. However, what route you choose, largely depends upon how much you score than on your wishes and whims.

No wonder students slog the entire year to get their SSC scores right! In fact after the entire year's rigorous preparation and a bountiful of sleepless nights, most of them eagerly look forward to face the dreadful examination monster. (And to finally get over with it!)

But trust us on this! Just like any other examination, SSC examination would be dreadful only if you are under prepared. As is observed universally, preparation is the key.

For the ones who are prepared and ready to take the challenge, we have a penultimate weapon to test your mettle.

Target's SSC Question Paper Set.

This book includes 24 Questions Papers across eight subjects to gear you up for your Final Exams. Not just that, all the Questions Papers are supplemented with Model Answers to make sure you encounter no scope for error. These Question Papers are in tune with the changed syllabus and are composed according to the new pattern.

As the old adage goes, "Practice makes a man Perfect", students would find here a goldmine of Question Papers to practice upon before they are up for their final battle. We are sure these Question Papers would prove to be extremely instrumental in achieving monumental scores in the Board Examinations.

We wish you all the best for the exams and your future!

S.S.C. Preliminary Examination – 1

ENGLISH

Time: 3 Hours

Total Marks: 80

Section 'A'

(Prose)

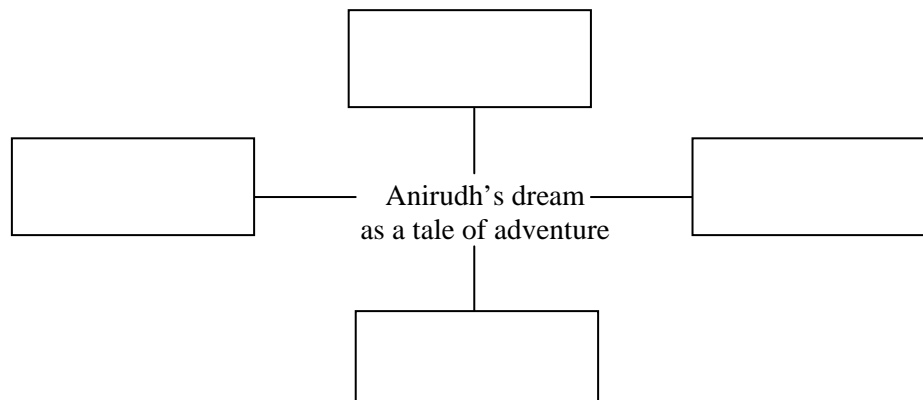

(Reading Skills, Vocabulary, Grammar)

Q.1. (A) Read and understand the following passage and complete the activities given below. [10]

In the book Anirudh's dream, the reader is transported to the mist-clad mountains surrounding Khadakvasla dam near Pune. The initial part of the adventure is set in the sprawling and green campus of National Defence Academy (NDA). The author is successful in recreating the charm and spirit of a rainy day on the Khadakvasla lake beautifully. There is action, emotion, courage, presence of mind and friendship that are depicted in this tale of adventure. After the initial sail boat race at Khadakvasla, the scene shifts to the mountain forts of Sahyadri with a bit of Shivaji Maharaj's history added to the trekking adventure. The observations of the author pertaining to the flora, fauna and culture of the place are very minute. Dialogues throughout the book are lively. Suddenly there is a twist in the storyline and the characters and locations change in flashback that is shown as a dream sequence. The reader is transported back to the old world colonial charm of Mumbai and its surroundings that were teeming with greenery and wildlife in those times (probably 150 years ago). The main protagonist – Anirudh (Irfan in the dream sequence, which sounds like the past birth of Anirudh) is a mixed personality, daring in some situations and afraid in others. His band of friends completes a youthful spirit of adventure.

Questions:

1. Complete the following statements with the correct responses: [2]
 - i. The initial part of the adventure is set in the sprawling and green campus of _____.
 - ii. The author is successful in recreating the charm and the spirit of a rainy day on the _____ lake beautifully.
 - iii. There is action, emotion, courage, presence of mind and _____ that are depicted in this tale of adventure.
 - iv. The reader is transported back to the old world _____ charm of Mumbai.
2. Complete the following web describing the book 'Anirudh's dream' as a tale of adventure: [2]

3. Match the words in Column A with the description in Column B. [2]

	Column 'A'	Column 'B'
i.	paper	truly what it is said to be
ii.	pile	a sudden upsetting or surprising experience
iii.	shocked	material manufactured in thin sheets from wood pulp
iv.	genuine	a number of things lying on top of one another.

4. Combine the following sentences using subordinating conjunctions. [2]

- i. We lazed around all day. My sister was watching cartoons on the idiot box.
- ii. Grandpa abandoned his newspaper. He called me to his room.

5. Write your opinion about 'Saving paper'. [2]

Q.2. (A) Read the passage and complete the activity given below. [10]

The Ajanta caves, we were told, lay in the side of a ravine in wild and desolate country some 350 miles to the north-west, at the extreme tip of Hyderabad state where it touches the Bombay Province. Properly speaking they were not caves at all, but temples which had excavated from the living rock by Buddhist monks. These monks had first come to the ravine somewhere in the second century before Christ and they had begun by hacking out the rock by hand and hurling it down into the river below. Then, probably with large mirrors to reflect the sunshine from the ravine outside, they set about the decoration of walls, the doorways and the ceilings. They continued for the next eight hundred years, always painting and sculpturing Lord Buddha, but setting him against an idyllic background of folk tales and the everyday life of their own time. In much the same way as in the Italian Renaissance which over a thousand years later, the work was subsidised by wealthy merchants and the princes of the surrounding countryside.

Questions:

1. Choose the correct alternative and complete the sentences. [2]
 - i. Properly speaking they were not _____ at all.
a. temples b. rocks c. caves
 - ii. They continued for the next _____ hundred years.
a. seven b. eight c. six
2. Provide a meaningful and catchy title to the given passage and justify it. [2]
3. Write from the passage the words of similar meaning. [2]
 - i. bleak and empty
 - ii. remove earth from an area to find buried remains.
4. Do as Directed [2]
 - i. They had begun by hacking out the rock by hand and hurling it down into the river below. (Change the voice)
 - ii. The work was subsidised by the wealthy merchants and the princes of the surrounding countryside. (Rewrite using 'not only but also')
5. What are your impressions of the writer from reading this passage? [2]

(B) Read the passage and complete the activity given below. [10]

Quite often, it is not the names of places, but people who are responsible for misguiding the new arrivals, making them end up at wrong places. I have come across different types of such ‘guides’ – well intentioned, overfriendly, rather confused, reticent and even rude.

The overfriendly type most of the time is not very helpful. “Where is Banyan Tree Street?” you ask him. He takes a long look at you, “Are you new to this place?” he asks. You nod. The overfriendly type asks more questions of a personal nature. “Oh you are going to meet Govindaswamy. I know his cousin’s brother-in-law who went to college with my elder brother’s second cousin.”

Questions:

1. Choose the correct option and complete the sentence. [2]
 - i. The overfriendly type most of the time is _____.
 - a. not very useful
 - b. not very helpful
 - c. not very caring
 - ii. The overfriendly type asks more questions of _____.
 - a. a political nature
 - b. a religious nature
 - c. a personal nature
2. Complete the sentences using suitable responses. [2]
 - i. Quite often, it is not the names of places, but people who are responsible for misguiding the new arrivals, _____.
 - ii. The overfriendly type most of the time is not very helpful because _____.
3. i. Choose a word from the passage opposite in meaning to the given word [1]
 - a. demonstrating
 - b. polite
- ii. Write the adjective from the passage which are used for the following nouns. [1]
 - a. places
 - b. guides
4. Prepare two ‘Wh’ questions to get the underlined part as the answer. [2]
 - i. I have come across different types of such guides.
 - ii. The overfriendly type most of the time is not very helpful.
5. What do you know about guides? Have you ever come in contact with a guide? What was your experience? [2]

Section 'B' (Poetry)

Q.3. (A) Read the following extract and attempt the given activities.

[5]

There was a roaring in the wind all night;
 The rain came heavily and fell in floods;
 But now the sun is rising calm and bright,
 The birds are singing in the distant woods;
 Over his own sweet voice the Stock-dove broods;
 The Jay makes answer as the Magpie chatters;
 And all the air is filled with pleasant noise of waters.
 All things that love the sun are out of doors;
 The sky rejoices in the morning's birth;
 The grass is bright with raindrops—on the moors
 The hare is running races in her mirth;
 And with her feet she from the plashy earth
 Raises a mist; that, glittering in the sun,
 Runs with her all the way, wherever she doth run.

Questions:

1. Choose the correct alternative and complete the sentence. [2]
 - i. There was a roaring in the wind _____.
 a. all day b. all evening c. all night
 - ii. The birds are _____ in the distant woods.
 a. dancing b. singing c. cooing
2. Describe the bright morning. [2]
3. Give the rhyme scheme of the first seven lines of the extract. [1]

(B) Read the following extract and complete the activities.

[5]

Tell me is it right
 That we sleep well at night
 Replenishing ourselves
 For tomorrow's greedy fight

 There lie abundant rivers with pollution
 There fly multiple clouds with contamination
 And when good food goes to waste
 The valleys of the earth bury their paste

 Our world is an institution
 Of environmental pollution
 We choose not to care
 For our future generations

Questions:

1. Choose the correct alternative. [2]
 - i. For _____ greedy fight. (today's, tomorrow's)
 - ii. For our _____ generations. (present, future).
2. Which things in our society are affected by pollution? [2]
3. Pick out the rhyming words from the extract. [1]

Section 'C' (Rapid Reading)

Q.4. Read the given passage and attempt the activities given below.

People came to him when the patient was on his last legs. Dr. Raman often burst out, "Why couldn't you have come a day earlier?" The reason was obvious-visiting fee twenty-five rupees, and more than that, people liked to shirk the fact that the time had come to call in Dr. Raman; for them there was something ominous in the very association. As a result, when the big man came on the scene it was always a quick decision one way or another. There was no scope or time for any kind of wavering or whitewashing. Long years of practice of this kind had bred in the doctor a certain curt truthfulness; for that very reason his opinion was valued; he was not a mere doctor expressing an opinion but a judge pronouncing a verdict. The patient's life hung on his words. This never unduly worried Dr. Raman. He never believed that agreeable words ever saved lives. He did not think it was any of his business to provide comforting lies when as a matter of course nature would tell them the truth in a few hours. However, when he glimpsed the faintest sign of hope, he rolled up his sleeve and stepped into the arena: it might be hours or days, but he never withdrew till he wrested the prize from Yama's hands.

Today, standing over a bed, the doctor felt that he himself needed someone to tell him soothing lies. He mopped his brow with his kerchief and sat down in the chair beside the bed. On the bed lay his dearest friend in the world: Gopal. They had known each other for forty years now, starting with their kindergarten days. They could not, of course, meet as much as they wanted, each being wrapped in his own family and profession. Occasionally, on a Sunday, Gopal would walk into the consulting room and wait patiently in a corner till the doctor was free. And then they would dine together, see a picture and talk of each other's life and activities. It was a classic friendship, which endured untouched by changing times, circumstances and activities.

In his busy round of work, Dr. Raman had not noticed that Gopal had not called in for over three months now. He only remembered it when he saw Gopal's son sitting on a bench in the consulting hall one crowded morning. Dr. Raman could not talk to him for over an hour. When he got up and was about to pass on to the operating room, he called up the young man and asked, "What brings you here, sir?" The youth was nervous and shy. "Mother sent me here."

"What can I do for you?"

"Father is ill...."

Questions:

1. How was Gopal and Dr. Raman's friendship? [1]
2. Re-arrange the sentences given below in sequence. [2]
 - i. "Mother sent me here."
 - ii. There was no scope or time for any kind of wavering or whitewashing.
 - iii. Gopal would walk into the consulting room and wait patiently in a corner till the doctor was free.
 - iv. On the bed lay his dearest friend in the world: Gopal.
3. 'Today, the doctor felt that he himself needed someone to tell him soothing lies'. Explain these lines. [2]

1.
 - i. National Defence Academy (NDA)
 - ii. Khadakvasla [1]
 - iii. friendship
 - iv. colonial [1]

2. [2]

The main protagonist Anirudh (Irfan in dream sequence) and his band of friends complete a youthful spirit of adventure.

Initial part set in the sprawling and green campus of National Defence Academy (NDA)

There is action, emotion, courage, presence of mind and friendship.

Anirudh’s dream as a tale of adventure

The scene shifts from boat race at Khadakvasla to the mountain forts of Sahyadri with a bit of Shivaji Maharaj’s history. There is twist in the storyline and the characters and locations change in flashback that is shown as a dream sequence.

iv.	genuine	truly what it is said to be

4. i. We lazed around all day and my sister was watching cartoons on the idiot box. [2]
 ii. Grandpa abandoned his newspaper and called me to his room.
 5. Papers are made from wood pulp which is obtained from trees by cutting them. Excess use of paper has led to immense felling of trees which has given rise to many problems. Trees are one of the most important factors in maintaining the oxygen level in the atmosphere. They take up carbon dioxide from the atmosphere and release oxygen that is the most essential component for survival of human beings. Use of papers deplete the number of trees. Therefore, limited usage of paper would help retain trees and a healthy atmosphere. Saving papers would save the environment. Subscribing to e-bills, printing on both sides of the paper and using the old papers for rough work are some of the measures that can be adopted to save paper. [2]

Q.2. (A) Read the passage and complete the activity given below.

1. i. caves [1]
 ii. eight [1]
 2. The temple of Ajanta!

Write a letter of apology to him/her.

Aarti Walia,
A/5, Palace complex,
S.V. Road,
Malad (W),
Mumbai – 400064.
23rd July, 2013.

Dear Amita,

How are you? How are studies going on? How are uncle and aunty?

We all are doing great here. Hope the same is with all of you. Give my regards to uncle and aunty and loads of love to little Raj.

Amita, I am writing to you today to talk about an important issue. I had borrowed the book The monk who sold his Ferrari from you some days back. I really enjoyed reading that book. But, as you know, we have shifted our residence, the book got misplaced in the shifting. I have searched for it high and low but cannot find it.

It was a very good book. I am highly apologetic for my mistake. I will buy and return a new book to you as soon as I get it from any shop. Hope you won't be angry on me.

I apologize again for the same and for the inconvenience caused to you. Hope you forgive me.

Your loving friend,
Aarti.

Mumbai – 400080.
23rd June, 2013.

To,
The Municipal Authority,
T-ward office,
Devidayal Road,
Mulund (W),
Mumbai- 400080.

Subject : About inconvenience caused by garbage left unattended.

Dear Sir,

As a responsible citizen of our suburb, I am writing this letter on behalf of all the residents of my locality in reference to the inconvenience caused due to the pile of garbage not been collected since the past 2-3 weeks.

The concerned garbage collecting workers have not come in our locality since last two weeks. The pile is increasing day by day giving rise to unbearable pungent smell everywhere. Due to the litter, mosquitoes have increased tremendously making it difficult for the children to play in the ground and senior citizens to walk during evening hours. The threat of malaria is traumatising all of us.

I request you to please look into the matter immediately and take required actions soon.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
Walia.

- (B) Write any one of the following:

1. You are aware nowadays, school students indulge in ‘reckless driving’ in which they break their limbs and it is also dangerous for their lives. Write a newspaper report on the above topic in about 100 words. [5]

Speed thrills but kills

Mumbai, 20th May

Speeding vehicles has become a trend amongst school going teenagers nowadays. A status symbol amongst school friends. Little do they know that they are breaking the law of driving without reaching the legal age and without possessing a certified license to drive on the road. Rash driving without having proper knowledge about driving and other safety measures, students tend to meet with accidents. Some even fatal among it.

An experienced trainer should accompany the new learners. Rules should be made strict. And strict action should be taken against those breaking the rules.

This will help the future of India to be safe and secure.

OR

2. Write a dialogue between two friends discussing about a subject as their exams are fast approaching.

Aditya : Hey Arun. How are you?
 Arun : Hey! I am good. So, you finished the sums we decided to solve?
 Aditya : Yes friend! I am following the time table we both have made. It is really very helpful and it gives me some spare time to refresh.
 Arun : As our exams are approaching, we need to follow the timetable. Its good to hear that its helping you like me. Did you find any difficulty in the trigonometry sums while solving them? I shall help you if any.
 Aditya : No difficulties any where since we had practised it a couple of times earlier.
 Arun : That's great. Now we will finish the remaining exercise till tomorrow and again discuss after it. Till then bye buddy!
 Aditya : Sure! Bye. See you tomorrow.

- (B) Attempt any one of the following:

[5]

1. You have been selected to deliver a speech during the school assembly on conservation of electricity. Write the speech.

Respected Principal Sir, Vice-principal Madam, Teachers and all my friends. A very good morning to all of you. Today, I, Ananya Rao, am going to speak to you about the conservation of electricity.

In today's world, our routine comes to a stand still when there is no electricity. It is so because we use all the gadgets, appliances that work on electricity.

But, the over-excess use of electricity has led to decline in its source which is a warning sign for all of us to start conserving electricity in order to live a hassle-free life.

Conservation of electricity is not a very difficult task to be done by any one. Electricity can be conserved by switching off the fans, lights and other electrical devices when not being used. Energy saved now would be useful for us and our future generations.

So, let us take a pledge today to join hands towards conservation of electricity for our own betterment and for the future generations to come!

Thank you.

OR

2. Express your views and counterviews about - “Digitisation at workplace”.

View:

- i. With digitisation at work place, work is done by the computers and so there are minimal or no errors taking place.
- ii. Work is done in lesser time as compared to it being done manually.
- iii. Large amount of data saved occupies very minimal space, thus making the office paper free.

Counter view:

- i. Computers replacing human beings gives rise to unemployment.
- ii. Total dependency of work to be done is on (computers) machines.
- iii. If the machine breaks/crashes down, a difficult situation arises.
- iv. People of earlier generation find it difficult to get adjusted to new technologies coming up everyday.

Q.7. Expand the ideas contained in any one of the following topics:

[5]

1. Service to man is service to God.

God’s most beautiful creation is Man. When we help our fellow beings in their difficult times, we worship god through the help we provide. It is so because humanity is the most fundamental and basic religion.

Before following our own religion, we must inculcate humanity within us and within people around us. This would enable peace and harmony in the society and there would be no place for any social or any other kind of evil to exist and fracture the well being of society we live in. Seeing a society in peace and harmony, god will be praised.

2. Green city, clean city

Cleanliness is next to godliness. This saying is being taught right from childhood to all of us. When cleanliness is maintained, the environment becomes positive and healthy. The same way like our personal surroundings, cleanliness comes mandatory for the city also in which we dwell and develop.

Cleanliness should not only mean clean in terms of surroundings, but the atmosphere and the environment should also be clean. When there is more and more greenery in the city, the environment and atmosphere are clean and healthy Trees tend to purify the atmosphere from pollution. Apart from trees, if we do not litter around in the city and keep its surroundings clean, the city would then indeed become Green city clean city!

3. Health is wealth

To earn wealth, one has to do immense hard work. There is lot of pressure – physically, mentally and emotionally. Ill health would not support in facing all these hurdles. A strong and sound health would enable a person to face the hurdles and come out successfully. Wealth does not only mean money. Wealth can also be counted for a good reputation, strong and positive image of one’s self amongst the rest. This can be achieved through building a strong and clean character which is not impossible. A sound health can enable a person to reach any pinnacle of success!
